

Carols by Candlelight - Bath Bach Choir
21st December 2018

Bath Bach Choir each year brings Christmas to Bath with its Carols by Candlelight, a programme that blends the traditional with the original, the festive with the fantastic. The three concerts this year provided the opportunity to see the Choir in either St Michael's Without or The Pump Room. I was lucky enough to attend the Friday concert at The Pump Room, which included an entertaining mix of carols interspersed between performances from a local children's choir and the exceptionally talented pianist, Nurry Lee, who had everyone transfixed (you could have heard a pin drop until the thunderous applause at the end). The choir were excellently conducted by Nigel Perrin, whose humour created a warm and relaxed atmosphere, encouraging the audience regularly into song throughout the evening - an evening that lifted spirits and brought home the true magic of Christmas. Hearing Bath Bach Choir proved to be a real treat, one I will not reserve for only at Christmastime.
