

Hideaway 17 Jazz Club

Review – 27/09/2019

Hideaway 17 Jazz Club is the ultimate throwback to the 1920's Jazz Age. Approaching the groovy blue, dim-lit underground club, you were transported in time and class. An ambient room filled with glitter, suits, stylish cocktails and feathers swinging around the dance floor lit up the basement of the Assembly Inn. Between the 'boogying' and drinks the band wowed the crowd imitating Louis Armstrong with their amazing solos and improv. Complimentary cheese and crackers were tastefully offered to all guests. Think you have spent an evening in Bath? Think again...Dress up, put on your dancing shoes and explore an evening not to be missed!
